Supplier Due Diligence

Policies, Governance and Due Diligence Processes

During the Reporting Period, we did not have in place a formal process to identify and respond to the adverse impacts of activities throughout the supply chain. However, we do not tolerate forced labour or child labour in our organisation or in our supply chain and the identification of any forced labour and/or forced labour in our supply chain would be grounds for termination of our relationship with such supplier.

Remediation Measures

No remediation measures have been taken during the Reporting Period as no risks of forced labour and child labour in our supply chain were identified.

Training

During the Reporting Period, no training was offered by OEG or its Subsidiaries on forced labour and child labour.

Assessing Effectiveness

No actions were taken during the Reporting Period to assess the effectiveness in preventing and reducing risks of forced labour and child labour in our activities and supply chains.

Approval and Attestation
